Application Instructions:

1. Complete, sign, and date this form. Include a resume or curriculum vitae (CV).
2. The application fee of $75 can be paid at: https://secure.touchnet.com/C21646_ustores/web/store_main.jsp?STOREID=45.
3. Provide the Applicant Recommendation form to two individuals who are either present or former law professors or employment supervisors. Each recommender must return the form to you in a sealed envelope which you then submit with your completed application, or the recommender may mail the recommendation directly to the Office of Graduate Programs at the above address.
4. Provide the Transcript Request and Certification form to your school. The certified official transcript may be sent (in a sealed envelope) directly to the Office of Graduate Programs or to you (in a certified sealed envelope) for inclusion with your application materials.
5. Please provide your e-mail address below as communication is largely done through electronic means.
6. If English is not your native language, or if you do not qualify for any other English language test waiver, please submit your official TOEFL/IELTS or PTE test score. The UConn School of Law code is 3915.
7. Applications are considered on a rolling basis. Applications should generally be received by April 1 for Summer or Fall term enrollment or November 1 for Winter or Spring term enrollment.

Admission decisions are typically made within three weeks of receipt of the completed application, although decisions are frequently made earlier.

Because of the high ethical standards to which lawyers are held, by submitting this application electronically, I certify that I recognize that the failure to disclose an act or event relevant to my application, particularly those calling into question character, honesty, or integrity may be more significant, and lead to more serious consequences than the act or event itself. My failure to provide truthful answers, or my failure to inform the Admissions Committee of any changes to my answers or personal circumstances no more than 10 days after I become aware of any relevant information may result in revocation of admission, disciplinary action by the Law School or University, and/or the ultimate denial of permission to practice law by a state in which I seek admission to the bar.

I certify that the statements and essays are my own work and that the information provided in this application and all attachments are complete and accurate to the best of my knowledge, information and belief. I understand that I have an ongoing obligation to inform the Admissions Office in writing of any false or misleading statements and any changed circumstances, including disciplinary actions, academic sanctions, and arrests within no more than 10 days from my first notice of such events. This obligation remains in effect throughout the admissions process and any subsequent matriculation at UConn School of Law. Once matriculated any disclosures must be made to the Assistant Dean of Students.

I realize that the Law School reserves the right to withdraw an offer of admission if I fail to maintain satisfactory scholastic standing for work in progress, if final records fail to show completion of courses and/or degrees required for admission, or if the admission decision was based on incomplete or inaccurate information furnished by me.
